

Product Comparison Chart

	Sway Balance	ImPACT	ImPACT Quick Test
What is it?	An integrated balance, symptoms, and brief cognitive measure	A battery of neurocognitive tests to help determine when a patient can safely return to activity after a concussion.	A brief sideline assessment tool for help with removal from activity decisions.
FDA Clearance	FDA cleared to assess sway as an indicator for only balance .	FDA cleared to assess cognitive performance as an indicator for concussions .	FDA cleared to assess cognitive performance as an indicator for concussions .
Administration Time	20-minutes	20-minutes	5-minutes
Pricing	$200 annual fee + $4 per athlete annually.	Packages starting at $462 annually. Includes baseline and post-injury testing and ImPACT Quick Test.	Free with any School Package.
Tech Requirements	Mobile device or tablet.	Desktop / laptop computer ( iPad functionality coming soon. )	iPad
Internet Requirements	No internet connection needed for test administration.	No internet connection needed for test administration with local install.	No internet connection needed for test administration.
At-home Baseline Testing	Available	FDA-cleared to be administered from home. Easily distribute and manage tests in the Customer Center.	As a modified sideline assessment tool, there is no baseline testing. Instead results are compared to normative data .

Have questions about getting started? ImPACT Applications offers free product support via telephone or email.

Reach out to us here. (877) 646-7991 ext: 3 | support@impacttest.com